WELCOME TO JAKARTA

There comes a point in every boxer's journey when potential is no longer enough.

The Asian Boxing U19 & U23 Boxing Championships represent that moment.

From July 3 to July 16, more than 400 of Asia's most promising young boxers will arrive in Jakarta to compete for continental titles and take the next step toward senior international competition.

For many, this championship is a bridge between youth success and elite ambition. For others, it is an opportunity to establish themselves on one of the biggest stages in Olympic-style boxing.

This media guide has been created to provide journalists, photographers, broadcasters, content creators and media professionals with the information needed to cover the championships efficiently and effectively.

Welcome to Jakarta. Welcome to the next chapter of Asian boxing.

See you ringside,

MICHELLE JON

Media & Communications Manager, Asian Boxing
